

REGULATIONS
OF THE
GLASGOW LUNATIC ASYLUM,
RELATIVE TO VISITORS.

---

I.—The Asylum shall be regularly visited twice a-week by a Director, or a Visitor appointed from among the Subscribers.

II.—The number of Visitors in one year should not exceed Thirteen, and none should be appointed but those who agree to perform the duty.

III.—The Visitors may visit in rotation, for one or two weeks, as may be agreed on. Each shall be regularly warned by the Secretary when his turn comes round, and, when he is prevented, he may request another Visitor to supply his place.

IV.—In a Book kept for the purpose, the Visitors shall mark the day and hour of their visit; the letter of the Ward, and the number of the apartment, of each patient who may be confined; the condition in which they find the House, the Servants, and the Patients, with any thing that occurs to them as requiring change or improvement. These Reports shall be regularly laid before the Weekly Committee, and, when thought necessary, the Committee shall lay them before the Directors.

V.—The Visitors are expected to repeat nothing out of the Asylum, by which the feelings of relations, or of the Patients on recovery, may be hurt.

GLASGOW, 1st May 1826.

SIR,

I beg leave to inform you that it is your turn to act as VISITOR of the LUNATIC ASYLUM, during the present ~~and ensuing~~ Week.

If you cannot conveniently attend to this duty, be good enough to inform me, that I may apply to some other Visitor.

I am,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

DON<sup>d</sup>. CUTHBERTSON, Secy.

You are requested to pay your visit
there on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday.

John Smith Junr. Esq.
